No alcohol is to be served at the table or booth in which a minor is seated, unless the minor is properly supervised by a parent, legal guardian, or a person 25 years of age or older who is directly responsible for the care and conduct of the minor or minors while on the licensed premises and keeps the minor or minors within his or her sight or hearing at all times.

PROPER SUPERVISION: A person 25 years of age or older who is directly responsible for the care and conduct of the minor or minors while on the licensed premises and keeps the minor or minors within his or her sight or hearing at all times. If the licensee, employee, or anyone paid by the licensee is performing as proper supervision, that person may not perform any other employment-related duties; otherwise, proper supervision shall consist of unpaid volunteers.
